

Mazen Altaruti

Latin America, Middle East, Russia and Africa Regional Lead

As president for the LAMERA region, Mazen aims to unleash the promise of Organon's diverse and trusted portfolio across women's health and other important therapeutic areas.

Mazen has more than 20 years of experience spanning across key markets in Eastern Europe and Organon's LAMERA region. Before assuming leadership of LAMERA, he held several positions, including Chief Marketing Officer for Eastern Europe, Middle East, and Africa, Gulf Managing Director, and Associate Vice President of MSD Gulf Cooperative Council (GCC), leading the human health commercial business across the GCC. He was also the chairman of the Pharma Association in the Gulf Region (PhRMAG).

Mazen has a bachelor's degree in pharmaceutical science from King Saud University and an M.B.A. from the University of Leicester.

About Organon Organon is a global healthcare company formed to focus on improving the health of women throughout their lives. Organon offers more than 60 medicines and products in women's health in addition to a growing biosimilars business and a large franchise of established medicines across a range of therapeutic areas. Organon's existing products produce strong cash flows that support investments in innovation and future growth opportunities in women's health and biosimilars. In addition, Organon is pursuing opportunities to collaborate with biopharmaceutical innovators looking to commercialize their products by leveraging its scale and presence in fast growing international markets.

Organon has a global footprint with significant scale and geographic reach, world-class commercial capabilities, and approximately 10,000 employees with headquarters located in Jersey City, New Jersey.
